

Outside Scholarships and Other Resources Form

FAFSA applicants must report to the Northeast Community College Financial Aid office all Outside Scholarships and other resources they have been awarded or know they will be awarded. Federal regulations require Northeast to include these resources when determining a student’s Federal Student Aid eligibility.

Outside Scholarships are scholarships awarded to the student by individuals, agencies, non-profits, etc. which are sent to Northeast Community College Financial Aid office or directly to the student. Other Resources include Northeast scholarships, waivers of tuition and fees, employer or other outside agency payments toward a student’s tuition/fees, books, supplies and other educational expenses.
